

TIMES PICTURE PAGE OF LIVE VIEWS AND NEWS

NOW LOOK AT HIM!
You hardly recognize him with his polished hair hidden beneath his hat. It is Roloph Valentino and Winifred Hudnut who officially becomes his wife next spring.
—P. & A. Photos.

HER HONOR THE MAYOR! Miss Emma J. Harvard, mayor of Iowa City, Ia., runs that city as a business proposition. Flappers and cake eaters are taboo there.
—International.

"SUNNY JIM" McCandless (right), came all the way from Honolulu to shake the hand of L. P. Steuart, pots of Almas Temple, and get things in shape for next year's shrine meet.

PEGGY BROWNE, Washington girl, who has deserted social ranks here to enter the movies. Her real name is Marguerite R. Caperton, of Richmond, Va.
—International.

SIGNS OF AUTUMN!
Charles Woodward Fox, 622 E street northwest was told he could have this pumpkin if he would carry it home. It weighs eighty-seven pounds.
—Times Staff Photographer.

THE FIRST WHITE WOMAN to go into the wilds of Abyssinia has come to this country. She is Mme. Sonia De Vries D'Alberg, of The Hague. She has hunted leopard, antelope, and crocodile.
—International.

TITLED NIPPONESE!
Countess Matsumoto, granddaughter of the late Count Watanabe, is in this country en route to Washington, with her husband, a noted financier.
—International.

WHAT is Edward Monihan, of Seat Pleasant, Md., thinking about now?

IT'S GOOD for sore eyes to witness a game like this, provided the participants are girls like these Los Angeles high school girls.
—International.

ATTENTION! Battalion Chief Thomas O'Connor has returned from a visit to Boston where he studied the drills required of firemen there. He will be drill-master here.
—Times Staff Photographer.

ANTONIA P. ENTRUZA, of Detroit, who has been chosen commander-in-chief of the Spanish-American War Veterans.
—International.

RESTAURANT COOKING!
"Nothing doing" says twenty-year-old Grace Clifford, Boston stenog, who was offered a job by Ziegfeld with The Follies, "I like home cooking."
—International.

See the News of the World

AT ALL LEADING THEATERS SHOWING

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Released by Universal
Film Exchanges